Farnetto del Principe Milbesium 2025

Milbesium is an elegant Malvasia from Calabria that impressively expresses the aromatic diversity of the Malvasia Aromatica grape variety. In the glass it presents a light straw yellow with brilliant reflections. The bouquet impresses with intense aromas of ripe fruits and white blossoms. On the palate it is fresh, harmonious and balanced, with fine minerality, pleasant spiciness and remarkable persistence. Its lively structure and elegant aftertaste make it a versatile companion for Mediterranean dishes. It is aged in stainless steel tanks, which optimally preserves the freshness, fruit and aromatic expressiveness of the grape variety. The result is an authentic Calabrian white wine with Mediterranean character and pronounced finesse.
