Mazzetti Gin

It is May 2010 when a new project is born in Mombaruzzo. Two realities meet: the Berta family and Diageo Italia. The idea was born: Oltre il Vallo, a fine aged grappa matured in single malt Scotch whisky casks. The project is the union of two cultures: the artisanal passion of the Berta family and the mastery of the best Scottish tradition, represented by a global company like Diageo, a world market leader in premium alcoholic beverages. Two very different cultures united by a passion for distillation. The name Beyond the Wall is a reminder that no one has ever managed to overcome the ancient fortifications of Hadrian, the wall that for most of Roman rule over Britannia marked the northernmost border of the Roman Empire. A fortress that divided the island in two. No one has ever managed to cross this border, until today, where Highlands and Monferrato symbolically come together in this aged distillate. The casks, selected one by one, come from those distant lands, from the oldest and most valuable Scottish distilleries: Lagavulin, Caol Ila and Mortlach, important names that have written and continue to write the history of the best Scotch whisky.
