Turicum Wood Barreled Gin

Turicum Wood Barreled Gin is an exclusive Swiss premium gin from Zürich, produced in small batches. After the classic distillation, the gin matures in carefully selected wooden casks, which gives it its warm colour and complex aromas. Fine notes of juniper, vanilla, wood and spices combine into a harmonious taste experience with an elegant finish. The combination of traditional botanicals and cask ageing gives this gin a unique character. Ideal for connoisseurs who appreciate high-quality spirits with depth and Swiss craftsmanship. Perfect neat or as a special base for fine cocktails and creative drinks.
