Mazzetti Grappa Barolo

The Grappa di Barolo is the absolute king among the cask-aged distillates of Piedmont. The base for this masterpiece from the house of Mazzetti d'Altavilla is the pomace of the noble Nebbiolo grape, from which the world-famous Barolo wine is also pressed. On the nose a wonderfully complex and warm bouquet immediately unfolds. Ripe red fruits, dried plums and fine spices meet noble notes of vanilla, tobacco and toasted wood, which arise from years of maturation in oak casks. On the palate this grappa is pure perfection - extremely strong in character, profound and wonderfully velvety soft with a long-lasting, aristocratic finish.
