Dieter Meier Puro Malbec 2025

An expressive organic Malbec from Mendoza in Argentina. Made from 100 % organically grown Malbec grapes that grow at the foot of the Andes at an altitude of around 1'100 metres, it impresses with intense fruitiness and an authentic character. On the nose, aromas of ripe blackberries, raspberry compote and blackcurrants unfold, accompanied by fine violet notes. On the palate, the wine is juicy and harmonious, with soft tannins, refreshing acidity and a long-lasting finish. Through ageing in stainless steel and concrete tanks without the use of wood, the natural fruit is particularly well preserved.
