Cardenal Mendoza Solera Gran Reserva Brandy de Jerez

Cardenal Mendoza Solera Gran Reserva is a noble Spanish brandy from the renowned Jerez de la Frontera region in Andalusia. Produced by Sánchez Romate, it matures using the traditional solera method in selected oak barrels that previously held Oloroso and Pedro Ximénez sherry. It delights with an elegant, mahogany-coloured appearance and a complex aroma of vanilla, dried fruit, spices and oak. On the palate it is full-bodied, soft and harmonious with a long-lasting finish. With its alcohol content and volume, it is excellent for sipping neat or as a special gift idea.
