Moet & Chandon Rose Imperial

Combines intense red fruit aromas with an elegant and supple structure. The cuvée is based on Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier and Chardonnay. A portion of the Pinot Noir and Meunier is integrated into the assemblage as red wine, which gives the Champagne its characteristic bright rosé colour and its pronounced fruit character. On the nose, wild strawberries, raspberries and cherries dominate, complemented by fine rose petals and a hint of pepper. On the palate it is juicy, intense and round, with aromas of strawberry, raspberry and redcurrant. A subtle peach note as well as fresh hints of pepper and mint accompany the finale.
