Muga Reserva DOCa 2021

A classic Rioja with plenty of character and a very balanced relationship between fruit, spice and wood. The Muga Reserva 2021 comes from Haro in Rioja Alta and is composed of Tempranillo, Garnacha, Mazuelo and Graciano. The grapes are hand-picked and fermented in large wooden vats. The wine then ages for 24 months in oak barrels before being refined for at least another 12 months in the bottle. On the nose, dark forest berries such as blackberries and blueberries dominate, complemented by spice notes. On the palate it is elegant, balanced and juicy, with soft tannins, well-integrated acidity and a long, fruit-driven finish.
