Caruso&Minini Cutaja Nero D'Avola Riserva 2019 Sicilia DOC

From the best Nero d'Avola grapes of the hills around Marsala comes an expressive red wine that impressively combines the power and elegance of Sicily. The intense bouquet delights with aromas of ripe currants, plums and dark forest fruits, complemented by fine notes of cocoa, vanilla, cinnamon, nutmeg and Mediterranean herbs. On the palate the wine is soft, full-bodied and harmonious with silky tannins, lively freshness and a long, lingering finish. After careful hand harvesting, a temperature-controlled fermentation of 15 to 20 days takes place in stainless steel tanks, followed by malolactic fermentation. The wine then ages for a total of 24 months, 18 of them in French and American oak tonneaux with a capacity of 500 litres and a further 6 months in the bottle. This ageing process gives it exceptional depth, complexity and an ageing potential of up to 15 years.
