Schenk Roche d'Or Epesses Lavaux AOC

Classic and characterful Chasselas from the renowned Lavaux region, which is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. In the glass it shows a light straw yellow with golden reflections. The bouquet is fine and typical of Epesses, marked by floral notes, ripe yellow fruits and a pronounced mineral freshness reminiscent of the steep vine terraces above Lake Geneva. On the palate the wine is elegant, fresh and harmonious with a clear structure, subtle fruit and a fine, salty minerality in the finish. Its authenticity and balance make it a classic representative of Lavaux wine culture. Ageing traditionally takes place in stainless steel tanks to best preserve freshness, the varietal aromatics and the terroir-driven minerality.
