Bodegas Aalto PS 2021 Magnum

Anyone who loves uncompromisingly made, highly intense yet perfectly balanced Spanish wines of a modern cut need look no further - at Aalto they will find it! After 30 years as chief oenologist and creator of the world-famous wine legend Vega Sicilia Unico, Mariano Garcia created his own red wine icon with Aalto, whose great fascination stems from the mighty depth and concentration of the Tempranillo fruit and which, through the virtuoso handling of barrique ageing, radiates that admirable harmony and elegance that makes Aalto PS so incomparable. Bodegas Aalto is one of the great success stories of Ribera del Duero of the last decade. The winery was founded only in 1999 by Mariano Garcia, for 30 years before that winemaker of Vega Sicilia, and Javier Zaccagnini, with the aim of creating a new, revolutionary wine based on very old Tempranillo vineyards and Mariano's vast wealth of experience. Within a very short time Aalto took a leading role in Ribera del Duero and has developed into a true cult wine that receives great recognition in the national and international trade press. Robert Parker, who tastes all Aalto wines himself, regularly awards top scores of 94 to 98 points. The leading French critics Michel Bettane and Thiery Dessauve have already included Aalto twice in their booklet of the 100 best wineries in the world.
