Graham's Port Blend No. 12 Ruby Port

Modern interpretation of the classic Ruby Port from the Douro Valley in Portugal. The port is made predominantly from the Touriga Nacional grape variety. The grapes are hand-picked at night in high-altitude vineyards to preserve their freshness and aromatic intensity. A particularly gentle cold fermentation preserves the fruity primary aromas. On the nose and palate, fresh aromas of raspberries, strawberries and red fruits appear, complemented by mountain herbs and a fine peppery spice.e freshness. The cold fermentation contributes to its fresh and aromatic profile.
